Dantree Farm and Nicayla Enterprises, Inc. Announce the launch of www.dantreefarm.com

Farmington Hills, Mich., March 15, 2005 – Dantree Farms, nationally known Morgan horse breeders announced the launch of www.dantreefarm.com this past week. Their new website serves the Morgan Horse community with information about their Stallions, Broodmares, Offspring and Showstock Morgans. With the help of Nicayla Enterprises, the site is a beautiful depiction of their farm and horses.

About the Dantree Farm

Dantree Farm is not just another horse farm, it is a lifestyle, surrounded by family and friends and most of all the versatile Morgan horse.

Showing, breeding and raising Morgan Horses is their pleasure and their passion. Having the entire family involved with these Morgan horses brings a true understanding of family unity along with challenges and achievements.

Please visit their website to get a feel for what Dantree Farm is.

The website features their stallions:

Tolstoy

Starting his career as the highest priced yearling to sell at public auction in the Morgan industry, Tolstoy has seemed destined for great things.

Nicoria

Nicoria's debut as a two year old had everyone who saw him asking "Who is this swaney necked colt?" Being by Futurity French Command and out of a Tedwin Topic daughter, this seems to be the golden cross.

PWF Good Will Hunting

PWF Good Will Hunting; charisma, charisma, charisma. Add that to extreme balanced motion and flawless conformation, Good Will Hunting also possesses a pedigree of invaluable blood. Being a grandson of I Will Command some would say you are looking at I Will himself.
